

Payment

In our Shop you can use one of the following payment methods:

Paypal

You pay the invoice amount with the provider PayPal. At first you have to be registered or will be registered, with your access data legitimatizing and to accept the payment procedure. During the order you will be redirected to PayPal where you execute the payment. After this you will automatically redirected to our shop to finish the order.

Prepayment by bank transfer

We give you our bank details that you can transfer the money to us. When we have received the payment we send you the ordered goods to the destination place.